Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was agreed to if an agreement was reached, or any other comments: Applicant's remarks filed Aug. 22, 2007 was referred to with respect to the claim language "wherein the appropriate length comprises a length that is less than a total length of the document". The examiner pointed out the keyword "comprises". Because "comprises" is used (as opposed to "consists of"), the total length of the document of Seto meets the claimed "appropriate length" because the total length in fact comprises a length that is less than the total length of the document. Mr. Iverson proposed to amend the claim language to read "wherein the appropriate length is less than a total length of the document". The examiner agreed that an amendment with the new language would overcome the art rejection of claims 1, 18 and 38. A new search will be conducted when and if such an amendment is properly filed and entered .
